VOLUME XII.—NO. 28

SMALL PAPER IN WESTERN KENTUCKY

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1907.

WHOLE NO. 2168
ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1880

Here and There

Men who imagine that they are not getting all that is coming to them at a rate ought to be thankful for it instead of complaining about it.

It is reported that many dealers in western Kentucky are violating the state feed law, which went into effect last June. The law provides that "manufacturers, dealers and agents of feed stuff shall file with the directors of Kentucky agricultural experiment station each year, an application, giving the name under which the different brands of feeds are sold; the manufacturer's name and address; the net weight of the packages; the guaranteed analysis showing the per cent of protein and fats, and the names of the different ingredients from which the feeds are made."

Life is like a claster in one respect: The more you put into it the more you can get out of it.

It is nearly a thousand years ago since the fall of a bank in China. Over 900 years ago, in the reign of Hi Hung, a bank failed. Hi Hung at once issued an edict that the next time a bank failed the heads of the cashier and directors were to be cut off. This edict, which has never been revoked, has made China's banking institutions the safest in the world.

Sabot soon loses interest in the man who is striving earnestly and honestly to help his fellowmen.

An exchange says a small merchant at Atchison, Kansas, asked one of the most successful business men of the town why he threw away so much money advertising.

The successful merchant replied: "I advertise because I am not ashamed of my goods or work. Because I cater to the intelligent class and they read the newspapers, and I believe in increasing my business."

Because I talk to more people through the newspaper, greater distance in less time, and at a more reasonable price than in any other way. Because newspaper advertising has brought greater results for the least expenditure of any advertising."

The man who smiles in the face of disaster will soon see disaster's back.

Mr. Carnegie has given Princeton university an artificial lake so that the students may organize a boat club.

A friend of ours whose income for a year just equals that of Mr. Carnegie for a minute, has given three or four hungry men square meals, and somehow or other we opine that our friend has the best of it.

It takes more than a plerethoric sum to make a man.

Some Massachusetts women suggested the enroloching of bachelors after they reach the age of forty. Possibly in a chloroformed condition the bachelors might be willing to marry the Massachusetts women.

The champion cotton raiser of Oklahoma is a colored man named Alfred Smith. He has not only taken all the premiums offered in that state for the first and best cotton, but his product has received the blue ribbon at the St. Louis world's Fair.

Still "standing pat" on those New Year's resolutions?

A man in Cleveland, Ohio, who had a spoonful of his brains knocked out in an accident in a building at that place, was awarded a judgment for $1,000 damages. He must be a brainy man.

Two drastic bills were introduced in the Washington legislature prohibiting publication in newspapers of suggestive stories and prohibiting any account or reference to an execution, a burning, a lynching, or the details of the commission of any crime or of any criminal trial, and prohibiting also the publication of certain medical advertisements.

An Arkansas man desiring to cure his son of a foolish belief in ghosts, rigged himself up in a sheet with the idea of first scaring the youth and then laughing at him. The plan was only partially successful. The young man was scared, but not so badly that he could not reach for a shotgun and fill the paternal joker full of bird shot, thus spoiling the proposed climax of the plot. The episode will be of no particular value to the Society for Phychical Research but it may be suggestive to people who have a fancy for playing ghost.

Mr. C. V. Jones, of Memphis, a grain dealer, was in Hickman Saturday on business. He is experiencing much trouble on account of the car shortage situation.

Over 8,000,000 Bibles were sold in this country last year. This is the largest sale awarded any book, while the Bible is a pretty old book it does not seem to be going out of use. No book is read by so many people and no book has so much influence.

Solomon never said a wiser or a truer thing than this: "A merry heart doth good like a medicine, but a broken spirit drieth the bones." That's a good sentiment to print on a card and hang up where you can see it every day.

Did you ever count the words in a column of a newspaper? There are about two thousand words in a column. Suppose you sit down and write a thousand words on some subject, and then another until you have written eight or ten thousand. Try it and see if it is right away. Keep that gait up for a month. Then chase a local item all over town, then after you have gotten the facts all right condense them in a few lines an hours work that can be read in a few seconds. Do this for a dozen items that seem insignificant after they are printed, but which you know are important, then have the items criticized and the inaccuracies pointed out to you when it is too late to correct them. O, yes, it is dead easy to conduct a newspaper.

A broken pledge is better than no effort at reformation.

The czarina of Russia, who is renowned for her beautiful jewels and extensive wardrobe, has one of the handsomest sable coats in the world. In United States coin it is valued at from $250,000 to $400,000. The Queen of Norway also has a magnificent sable coat which, although not as valuable as that of the czarina, is worth a small fortune, being valued at between $150,000 and $200,000.

The German ambassador at Washington has had his salary increased $4,000 a year on account of the increased cost of living in the United States. This fact is respectfully referred to the government statisticians who have been insisting that the cost of living has not kept pace with the increased wages.

Bible Society is a Trust.

Charges that the American Bible Society is a trust are made by secretary E. B. Stinson, of the Union Bible Society of Worcester, Mass., who asserts that the society keeps the price of Bibles bolstered up higher than the proper market value. He said in his report to the society:

"This society has in its possession abundant proof that can be given to the public that more than justify us in condemning the Bible Society Trust movement, a movement that does not take the name of a trust, but embodies some of its most objectionable features.

"Because of an arrangement of this combine, individuals, churches and societies in the United States have found they could not buy a Bible in London or Canada without the consent of a Bible Society in New York. The money sent with such orders has been returned."

The annual reports of the American Bible Society show that during the last three years from 800 to 1,000 local independent Bible societies in various parts of the United States have been literally wiped out of existence.

A BABY

"Should be available in the home, and will be given gratis to every woman in the greatest woe medicine ever offered to suffering humanity. This remedy is becoming popular with physicians and recognized as a poultice. A mother with children can't afford to be without it. It is a pure preparation in the house. It is the purest and most effective medicine ever made. Sold by Cowgill's Drug Store and Helm & Helm."

Increasing Rapidly.

The management of the Courier takes pleasure in announcing to its readers and advertisers that the subscription list is increasing at pleasing rate. There are very few days that pass but we add one or more names to our already large list. This is pleasing both to us and to the advertisers. And another pleasing fact is that some of those who have been in arrears so long are beginning to realize the fact that they have been getting the best paper that is printed in Western Kentucky and are paying up. There are some however, who are still in arrears, and some of them will require attention soon or we will be compelled to cut them off.

Stray Notice.

Taken up as stray by J. C. Hendrix, living about 3 miles from Hickman on the Dresden Road, in Fulton County, Kentucky, one Bay horse mare, striped legs, supposed to be about three years old, crippled in left hind leg. No other marks. Valued at $40.

Given under my hand this Jan. 5, 1907. W. A. NAYLOR, J. F. C. C. A copy attest.

38 S. F. ROPER, Clerk.

The assistant auditor of Kentucky has compiled a statement showing the amount per capita of taxation in the counties of Kentucky, and Hickman county is 23rd in the list, the per capita tax paid the state being $1.66. In this district only McCracken and Fulton counties show a higher per capita, the former paying $1.87 and the latter $1.79. Woodford pays the highest per capita tax, $4.26, and Elliott the lowest, 40 cents. Other counties of the First congressional district pay as follows: Ballard, $1.25; Carlisle, $1.13; Calloway, $1.00; Crittenden, 96c.; Caldwell, $1.01; Marshall, 85c.; Trigg, 94c. If the State Board of Equalization fairly considers these figures, if they mean anything, Hickman county should escape a raise this year. But as our county assessment for 1907 shows a falling off in land values, we look for the State Board to raise us from 10 to 25 per cent.

Wanted It In Style.

"Mr. wants a package of dye and she wants a fashionable color," said a little girl to a druggist.

"A fashionable color?" echoed the pharmacist. "What does she want it for? Eggs or clothes?"

"Well," replied the girl, "the doctor says my mom has stomach trouble and she ought to diet. And ma says if she has to dye it she might as well dye it a fashionable color."

This is worth Saving.

The following simple home-made mixture is said to relieve any form of rheumatism or backsache, also cleanse and strengthen the kidneys and bladder, overcoming all urinary disorders, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease: Fluid extract of dandelion, one half ounce; Compound karrow, one ounce; Compound syrup, saraparilla, three bottles. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime.

A well-known authority states that these ingredients are mainly of vegetable extraction, and harmless to use, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy. Those who think they have kidney trouble or suffer with lame back or weak bladder or rheumatism, should give this prescription a trial, as no harm can possibly follow its use, and it is said to do wonders for some people. 34-8-42

Three States Items.

Mengle Box Co.'s crew have been here several weeks.

Mrs. Ed Barnes and children are on a visit here this week.

Quite a change in the temperature and the change is felt considerably.

Mrs. Rube Wallace and children, of Sugar Tree, spent this week with Grandma Saunders.

Mrs. Dugan Arnold returned from Whiting, where she visited her mother, during the flood.

Mrs. Wilson and daughter, spent several days on the "mounds" with Mrs. Hopkins the past week.

Ivan Jones moved here this week. We welcome him and as many more as see fit to move into our burg.

Miss Mattie Coleman returned from Memphis, Tenn., on Peters Lee, Saturday. She reports a nice time on her trip.

As it has been quite awhile since you have heard from us; will come again. We are a little disfigured but still in the ring.

Mr. Coleman made a business trip to Cairo Saturday. Tom Hubbard had charge of Mr. Coleman's store during his absence.

Frank Shanks and Tom Cole, who have been in Mississippi at work, returned home Monday. They will return to their work in about two weeks.

Mr. Coleman and family, who lived at Hickman during the flood, have returned home except Mrs. Coleman, her health not being good. She is now on an extended visit at Springfield, Mo.

We have had an overflow and no mistake. The country shows the after effects. A great deal of corn was ruined. What is saved will bring a good price, is the general opinion. Corn to make another crop will be scarce and high.

How Much Could You Get for your Farm?

You are a farmer. You live near this town. You own land. Let us say that you own more than you need and would like to sell a hundred acres.

How much could you get per acre? Land values have risen lately. But has the value of your land risen as you think it should?

Your land is good land. You think it is worth considerably more than anybody has offered you. Well, let us see.

A man buying farm land naturally prefers to locate near a thriving, up-to-date town. He wants good home markets for his crops. He wants good schools.

Let us say your land is three miles from town. A farm that looks very much like yours is three miles from a town twice as big and twice as prosperous as this town.

If you were going to buy a farm for your own occupancy, wouldn't you pay a whole lot more for land near the town that is twice as large and twice as lively?

Of course you would. It would be good business.

Now, what makes a town big and hustling? Money. Money in circulation. Not in circulation in Chicago for instance, but right in the town that wants to grow.

How much money have you sent to the big mail order houses in the city the past ten years? How much have your neighbors sent? How much have all of you together put out of circulation here at home?

It is probably beyond calculation. If all that money had been spent in your own home town, isn't it reasonable to assume that the town would have grown more than it has grown?

Wouldn't this town be a bigger and better town?

Wouldn't it have more stores to buy produce?

Wouldn't it have more public improvements to make it more attractive to outsiders who might come here to live, to go into business, or buy your surplus land at a good figure?

To trade at home means to help the town and the neighborhood. To help the town and the neighborhood means to help yourself.

DON'T COMPLAIN.

If your chest pains and you are unable to sleep because of a cough. Buy a bottle of Dr. Clegg's Balsam. You may have any cough; get a bottle now and that cough will not last long. A cure for all colds, gripes, rheumatism, etc. Price, 75¢. "It can't say enough for Bellard's Balsam. It is the best medicine given. It is all that is necessary for me to say." Sold by Cowgill's Drug Store and Helm & Helm.

Good Doctrine.

An exchange wisely says: The lower branch of the Missouri Legislature has passed an anti-tipping bill. It ought to become a law, and every State in the Union ought to pass a similar one. So great has the evil become that in many hotels, on railroad sleeping cars and in other places it is impossible to get decent service without "shelling out" something extra to a waiter or porter.

It is a "hold up" practice, without excuse, and the public must submit or be denied the proper service for which it has already paid. The customer pays for the accommodation and then pays for the privilege of being accommodated. He is deceived, with the knowledge, and often with the consent, of the proprietor. In some big establishments servants actually pay for their positions, knowing that it gives them an opportunity to make more money than if no tips were allowed, and the usual wages paid. It is a nuisance that ought to be abated. It is an injustice; in fact, is robbery, and now that a reform movement has been started in this direction a long suffering public ought to give it a hearty support.

Friday, March 1, 1907.

A meeting of the democratic committee of the First District has been called to meet at Henderson Ky., tomorrow, for the purpose of naming the time and manner of making a nomination in this district. The people all over the state are mostly in favor of making these nominations by primary elections, yet it is understood there is some opposition to this plan in the first district. Some of the moderate farmers contend that a primary election would be better than a regular election. But as to what the committee will do, is not known. Among the prominent candidates for this position are Judge Bunk Gardner of Mayfield, Hon. McD. Ferguson, the incumbent and Hon. Lawrence Einn, of Franklin. It is expected a pretty lively tilt and a nice play of politics will take place in the selection of a nominee for Railroad commissioner in this district.

Ollie James succeeded in getting an amendment through the house, making the street railway fare three cents in Washington City.

Cairo is attempting to have all the low parts of the city filled with sand. A large pump is at work pumping water and sand from a bar in the river; the water runs off and leaves a good bed of sand. The work will be more extensive in a short time; the test is now being made, and the prospects are that the plan will prove a success.

Have You Paid Your City Tax For 1906?

Do We Want a Flour Mill?

Mr. W. A. Johnston, of the Hickman Hardware Co., this week had a letter from Mr. W. B. Hackett, of Triple T Flour Mills, which states that he will be in a position to go into business for himself in a short time in a flour mill. He says he is very favorably impressed with Hickman and still wants to come here. He was in Hickman last fall looking toward putting in a mill here, but did not get the proper encouragement from our people here. Now, you all know that above all things else Hickman needs a flour mill worse than any thing. Mr. Johnston says he knows Mr. Hackett to be the best miller in the section of the country from which he comes and that Hickman could not make a wiser move than to make arrangements for him to locate here. Let us not permit this opportunity to slip from our grasp as we have so many others but lend him all the assistance we can and endeavor to get him to locate here.

Quarterly Court.

Regular session of quarterly court was in session the first two days of the week.

Herchell Vincent was tried on a charge of forgery. In default of bond he was remanded to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Arthur Upshaw and another negro were tried before a jury on a charge of larceny and dismissed.

A lawsuit over a dog, between Sam Haddon, of Sassafras Ridge, and a negro, was decided in favor of the negro.

Nathan Allen, who shot a negro four years ago, was given a preliminary hearing and in default of bond was remanded to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

The vote of 42 to 28 the Senate decided that Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, the Mormon Senator, holds his seat after a contest lasting over three years. Three Democrats voted for Smoot and nine Republicans against him.

A. F. Gaskins, a Fulton carpenter in Gleason, Tenn., Sunday, was unmarried and about 38 years old.

State Line.

Jno. Maddox visited his family last week.

Wilson Rice is reported to have a bad case of mumps.

The wedding bells will be ringing again soon in this community.

Mr. W. M. Bacon is visiting at the home of Mr. Marshall Rice.

James R. Moss of Union City, had business at State Line Sunday.

Miss Jennie Burris visited friends and relatives in Martin and Greenfield last week.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Rhoulac of Union City were the guests of Mrs. Mary Prather last week.

Dr. G. B. Burris of Woodland Mills was the guest of his brother, Mr. S. B. Burris and family Sunday.

J. J. Burris has sold his stock of merchandise at this place to Burris Brasfield, who will continue the business.

Mr. Isaac Shuff went to St. Louis last Thursday to have an operation performed. He expects to be absent several days.

Mr. Gordon Rice has been attending to business in the store of E. C. Rice & Co. while Mr. Rice was away making his spring purchases.

A surprise wedding of two of our popular young people took place at Union City last Monday night. When Mr. Edward Townsend met his fiance Miss Nannie Shaw, in that city and both lives were made one by the officiating minister, there are many people in town who are entirely lost to our community, though they intend making their future home in Hickman where Mr. Townsend is employed as salesman in the store of Smith & Amberg. We all join in wishing them much happiness and prosperity.

The court of appeals has declared void a city election held in Princeton a year ago last November, on the ground that gross fraud and bribery were practiced. The contest was made by the Republicans candidates for councilmen who were supported by the Democrats. Matters have indeed come to a pretty pass when dishonesty and corruption are practiced in a small town election in Kentucky; but these amateurs were doubtless "projecting" along lines that sets the pace for the small fry.

The heavy sheet that night broke down a number of telephone wires, and pulled down some electric light wires.

The Second Annual meeting of the Kentucky State Farmers' Institute was held at Shelbyville, Ky., February 26, 27 and 28, under the Auspices of the State Department of Agriculture.

Mr. F. R. Stover, the Choir Leader at the Union Meeting, will arrive in the city today (Friday). Tonight he hopes to meet all the members of the Choir for a rehearsal, at the Court House.

Attempted Suicide.

Crit Boswell, one of the most prominent men in Carlisle county, attempted to commit suicide at his home near Milburn last week. He drank a quantity of slightly diluted carbolic acid. The act of Boswell being discovered his wife hurriedly summoned a physician, who resorted to the use of the stomach pump and antidotes. After several hours' hard work the doctor succeeded in reviving him, and it was thought Boswell will live. The would-be suicide is glad the attempt was a failure.

Comes High.

In this issue of the Courier will be found a delinquent tail of Fulton County.

The list is much larger than it ought to be, and in all probability it is the result more of negligence than other conditions. The interest that will be paid for the use of money due the county will doubtless average about 25 per cent. Yes, it's a pretty stiff rate, but who is to blame?

Don't make the same mistake next year.

Learn to meet your obligations properly.

Another Landslide.

The heavy rains Saturday and Saturday night caused more damage to the hillsides. As a result of the rains and soft earth the hill side between Mrs. J. W. Bland's residence, and Misses Alice and Bettie Dodds' residence in Kentucky street, came down to Carroll street all in a lump. There was considerable timber on the hill side used for supporting the earth from slipping.

Considerable earth came down the hill at the rear of Mr. J. H. Milleit's residence, and just east of the court house steps.

The old Campbell property on Carroll street began to slip toward the north, but only slipped a short distance.

The heavy sheet that night broke down a number of telephone wires, and pulled down some electric light wires.

The Second Annual meeting of the Kentucky State Farmers' Institute was held at Shelbyville, Ky., February 26, 27 and 28, under the Auspices of the State Department of Agriculture.

Mr. F. R. Stover, the Choir Leader at the Union Meeting, will arrive in the city today (Friday). Tonight he hopes to meet all the members of the Choir for a rehearsal, at the Court House.

IN THE STUD!

—At Oakwood Stock Farm, Hickman, Ky.—

ALFRED G, 12452.

Record 2:19 1/2.

This great horse is conceded to be one of the greatest harness horse sires of the present day. Having sired three records better than 2:30. He is 15.3 hands high, rich brown in color and has the best disposition. As to being a sire that is the best that has ever been in Western Kentucky or Tennessee, he needs no recommendation.

TERMS for the season of 1907, $30.00 cash at time of service to insure. Alfred G will only be allowed 20 outside mares.

DR. ROAN, 44832

This young horse is the grandest bred fellow in Kentucky. He is by Alfred G 12452, and his first dam is that of greatest broodmares, SPANISH MAIDEN (dam of Lizzie A (3) 2:13), Margrave 2:15% (sold when 17 years old for $6700) Cuban 2:14 1/4, Baron Review 2:21 1/4, Hobart 2:18 1/4, Alverton 2:23, Sunday Morning 2:29 1/2) by Happy Medium 400, sire of Nancy Hanks 2:0 2:4. Dr. Roan is a roan horse 16 hands high with great bone and substance and has a great flight of speed. This horse will not make a public season this year. Will be used for my private use.

IRASCIBLE SQUIRREL, 2808.

Black Horse, 16 hands high, foaled 1901.

IRASCIBLE SQUIRREL is the blackest of black horses, with the best of dispositions, fine mane and tail, has length of neck and the best back that any horse ever had, with fine bone and a great deal of substance. He has fine action at all the gaits. He is a fine breeder and his pedigree cannot be improved upon as a saddle horse. This horse traces on his sire's side to Black Squirrel, Dave Skain, Peavine—all noted horses in the saddle horse history. On his dam's side he traces to Mambrino Patchen, Berthume (sire of Van Meter's Waxy Grounding stock,) to Bald Hornet, an extra fine saddle stallion, and Grey Eagle. His first, third, fourth and fifth dams were all noted saddle mares, going a running walk, pace and trot, also the rack naturally, fast and easy. There is no saddle stallion with as many natural gaites, saddle dams as this one.

TERMS for the season of 1907, $20.00 to insure. Due when mare proves to be in foal.

SEASON OPENS MARCH 15, 1907.

Tabulated pedigrees of the above mentioned stallions will be furnished upon application. It will give us great pleasure to show these horses to the breeding public at any and all times.

Ollie James.

Who says we havn't a just right to be proud of our Congressman, Ollie James? In a speech, vigorously denouncing the system of placing $161,061,798.25 of government funds in national banks without interest, he said: "This wonderful sum of the people's money is in the national banks without the payment of one single cent of interest, and for which they are charging from 6 to 10 per cent, per year when they lend this money back to the people, from whom it came and to whom it rightly belongs. Mr. Chairman, I challenge the world for a greater or more vicious act of class legislation. I challenge anyone to present a scheme of spoliation or graft to excel it. Almost every state in the Union charges interest upon its public funds, so deposited. The state of Missouri loans its money at public auction to competitive bidders and realizes upon it 3 per cent interest per annum."

"The laboring man who counts his weary hours of toil in his battle for bread to feed his family gets no such kindly assistance in hours, even of distress, from his government, nor does the farmer, whose energy feeds the world. The drought may blight his crop, the waters may wash it away, the frost may kill it, misfortune may hover about him, but under this penning system he is given the poor privilege of paying high taxes by tariffs upon necessities of life that the money may accumulate in the treasury to make greater surplus to loan to the bankers for nothing."

For Calvary, let me send you free, just to prove me not a traitor to Dr. Calvary Remedy. It is a small white instant relief in Ushers of the nose and throat, the eyes, the teeth and nose. All Dr. Shook's Receipts. Wts. Large jars 20 cents. Sold by all dealers.

Senator McCreary last week made an effort to put the tall and austere Vice-President Fairbanks in a hole by fining the president of the Senate for being late for the first time since he has presided over the chamber. Mr. McCreary moved that the fine be imposed, but some of his wary colleagues dissuaded him from pressing the matter, pointing out that Mr. Fairbanks in retaliation could compel all Senators to be present for the opening prayer. At the present time, not more than a dozen Senators are in their seats when the chaplain's invocation opens the session. While they were arguing it, Mr. Fairbanks slipped into his seat, just two minutes late.

THE A. S. OF E. COLUMN

—BY MR. J. H. SAUNDERS—

Prof. L. H. Bailey, of Cornell University, asked the farmer boys in the College of Agriculture if they expected to live on the farm after they completed their education, and if not, why not? Of the one hundred and fifty-five answers to this question, very few expressed a desire to return to farm life.

These answers may be found in the July number of the "Century," and they are most interesting as revealing the reasons why so many country boys are fitting themselves for work away from the farm. These replies bring up questions of great public concern, for they have to do in a broad way with the position that the farmer occupies in the economic and social status.

Twenty per cent of the boys wish to leave the farm because it is not remunerative. One boy said, "I do not intend to follow farming as a business because it is unprofitable; viewed from its present status, it is a life in which no self-respecting man should ask a woman to participate. I say this because of the ceaseless care and unlimited toll which fall to the lot of the farmer's wife."

Yet every body admits that we are the greatest agricultural country in the world, and that agriculture is the foundation upon which our wealth and prosperity depend.

We have an agricultural department to our government, scores of agricultural colleges and experimental stations and pay millions of dollars for their support to teach our boys that they are "hewers of wood and drawers of water," in fact slaves to the rest of mankind.

We employ agricultural experts to hold institutes in almost every county in the United States and the farmers pay the expense of these meetings by direct or indirect taxation. One of these institutes met at Frankfort Ky., and in his address of welcome Gov. Beckham said that he was not a believer in the theory of trusts, but he believed that the only successful way in which the agricultural classes could protect their interests was to form as many combinations as possible in the sale of the articles produced on the farm. He said that farming was the greatest industry of all; that it formed the ground work of all other industries, and that the splendid commercial fabric which existed in this country rested upon agriculture as its basis.

At the same meeting Senator Chin said that farmers were strictly manufacturers and that they manufactured the one product that was indispensable to humanity—meat and bread and that if they would withhold their products for thirty days the millionaire with all his gold, would be down on his knees begging for mercy, and say to the farmers, "Take my gold, but for God's sake give me meat and bread."

Hon. Henry G. Overstreet took occasion to relate the experience of the farmers' organizations in Daviess County, Ky. They pooled their tobacco interests, and while every obstacle imaginable was placed in their way by the trusts, the men with millions of dollars could not stop the effort of the farmers to protect themselves and obtain reasonable and living prices. They closed out then holdings at 9.3-4cts. for lugs and 5 1-2cts. for trash.

We surely made a very enthusiastic beginning at Simmons on the 10th.

We have no labor market here from which to secure up-to-date cutters and tailors—
And we would always have on hand a lot of old style remnants from the previous season.

For the above and many other good reasons too numerous to mention, we take the measures and let Ed. V. Price & Co., The Chicago Merchant Tailors do the rest.

Their facilities do not consist of a sewing machine brought on the installment plan, but a modern up-to-date plant equipped with every improved labor saving device for practical economy for the benefit of our customers—a thousand tailor shops in one.

Can the farmers of Fulton Co. do as well? All we lack is organization.

The local Union, A. S. of E. at Simmons called a meeting on Tues. the 19th inst. to devise ways and means to hold the wheat crop of 1907 for the minimum price.

Addressees were made by President W. B. McGeehee, J. A. McClure Jas. H. Saunders, T. H. McMurry, E. D. Wallace, W. A. Brasfield G. M. Threlkeld Jr. and perhaps some others. The impression prevailed that the best way to hold the wheat was to erect an elevator to hold 50,000 bushels of wheat to be located at Shuck Switch. J. M. Roper, W. A. Brasfield and Threlkeld Jr. were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions to erect the elevator.

It was also decided that a meeting should be held at Roper School house on Tuesday the 26th to solicit new members and form a union in that district and that the committee should visit the Union meeting at State Line on the 27th inst. to solicit subscriptions for the elevator and report progress at a call meeting at Hazel Dell on Thursday the 28th.

The County Executive Committee is also called to meet with the Hazel Dell nucleus at the same place, Thursday P. M. Feb. 28th.

All these meetings will be matters of history when these lines reach our readers, but we hope to be able to repeat large and enthusiastic meetings at each of these places.

We surely made a very enthusiastic beginning at Simmons on the 10th.

Rural Telephones.

Mr. Editor: In the Courier 15th there appeared an article on Telephones, by Mr. J. H. Saunders. After giving a list of the Mud Creek Telephone Co. and its organization that voice says, "About the same time in our friends and neighbors to Hickman, put in Cumberland phones and for some purpose not know what, asked a committee from the merchants of Hickman I am told that some merchants of Cumberland thinking that they getting connection with us."

I wish to say that about eight months ago five of us in a neighborhood (four miles south of Hickman) put in Cumberland phones and as not knowing of any having put in Cumberland phone south of Hickman, I send a correction due us through your valuable paper.

*While it is true the sentence Mr. Saunders' article referred above does leave the impression it means the subscribers and town who had Cumberland phones installed, it did not have reference to them, but to the telephone line connecting the Woodland exchange. We are sure of the fact for Mr. Saunders was in our office and discussing the matter at time he tendered his article for publication. Mr. Ballou's objection printing the above was to run any doubt as to how the article intended.—[Editor.]
